We, the Stinger staff, of 1970 realize that each day of this school year has been one of a "Search for Tomorrow" not only for us as seniors but for every other member of our student body.

Each day of this year has brought truly wonderful tomorrows and with thought we present the '70 Stinger. We hope this yearbook will bring back many happy memories.

Editors,

Vicki Reppond
John Wheeler

Stinger History

The Linville High School "Stinger" has been the name of our school yearbook since its first publication in 1950. This first edition was edited under the direction of Mrs. Willard Taylor. Foreground for the yearbook was laid by Principal J. G. Jones in the fall of '49. During this time Taylor Publishing Company was selected as publishers and they have continued to serve us through the years.

The first editions of the yearbook covered only the front side of the page but since that time we now use both sides of the pages.

Mrs. Virginia Allen, commerce teacher, served as the yearbook typist for several years until students of the staff took over the job.

Representatives from each class in high school were the members of the staff until '53 when it was decided that the senior class would be in charge of the publication.

The progress of our school through the years has helped bring bigger and better yearbooks.

Since the first yearbook was published, the L.H.S. annuals have changed in size, added colored endsheets and improved in some way each year.

Students of L.H.S. and its alumni are proud of the "Stinger."

MR. A. A. HOLLIS

Administration

As principal of Linville High School, Mr. Hollis uses guidance and understanding as well as a little discipline to see that all of us learn to be better students in our "Search for Tomorrow."

We wish to thank Mr. Hollis for all his wonderful service.

These are the contestants for the title of "HALLOWEEN KING and QUEEN."

The Halloween Carnival of 1969 was really great especially when the scarecrow rose from the stage and walked. The small children enjoyed fishing for a prize at the fish pond.

The Sixth grade girls accompanied by Mr. Tedd Lann entertained with a song. Everyone enjoyed the spooks and their parade. The Haunted House added much excitement.

Mr. Hollis is caught relaxing.

P.E. boys work hard in practice.

Linda and Glenda Reppond enjoy modeling the dresses they have made in home economics.

Bobby Ford, Debbie Love, and Robert Wilson report high school activities.

The eighth grade boys use the library a great deal in studying Louisiana history.

Monica Edwards, Michael Lee, Lora Wise, Sue Lynn Pace, and Buddy Long are the kindergarten students from Linville.

Summer Activities

Kathy Snell, Vicki Reppond, Billy Oliver, and John Wheeler attended Leadership Conference on L.S.U. campus.

Classmates getting together.

Baseball games continue all summer.

Louisiana Girls State

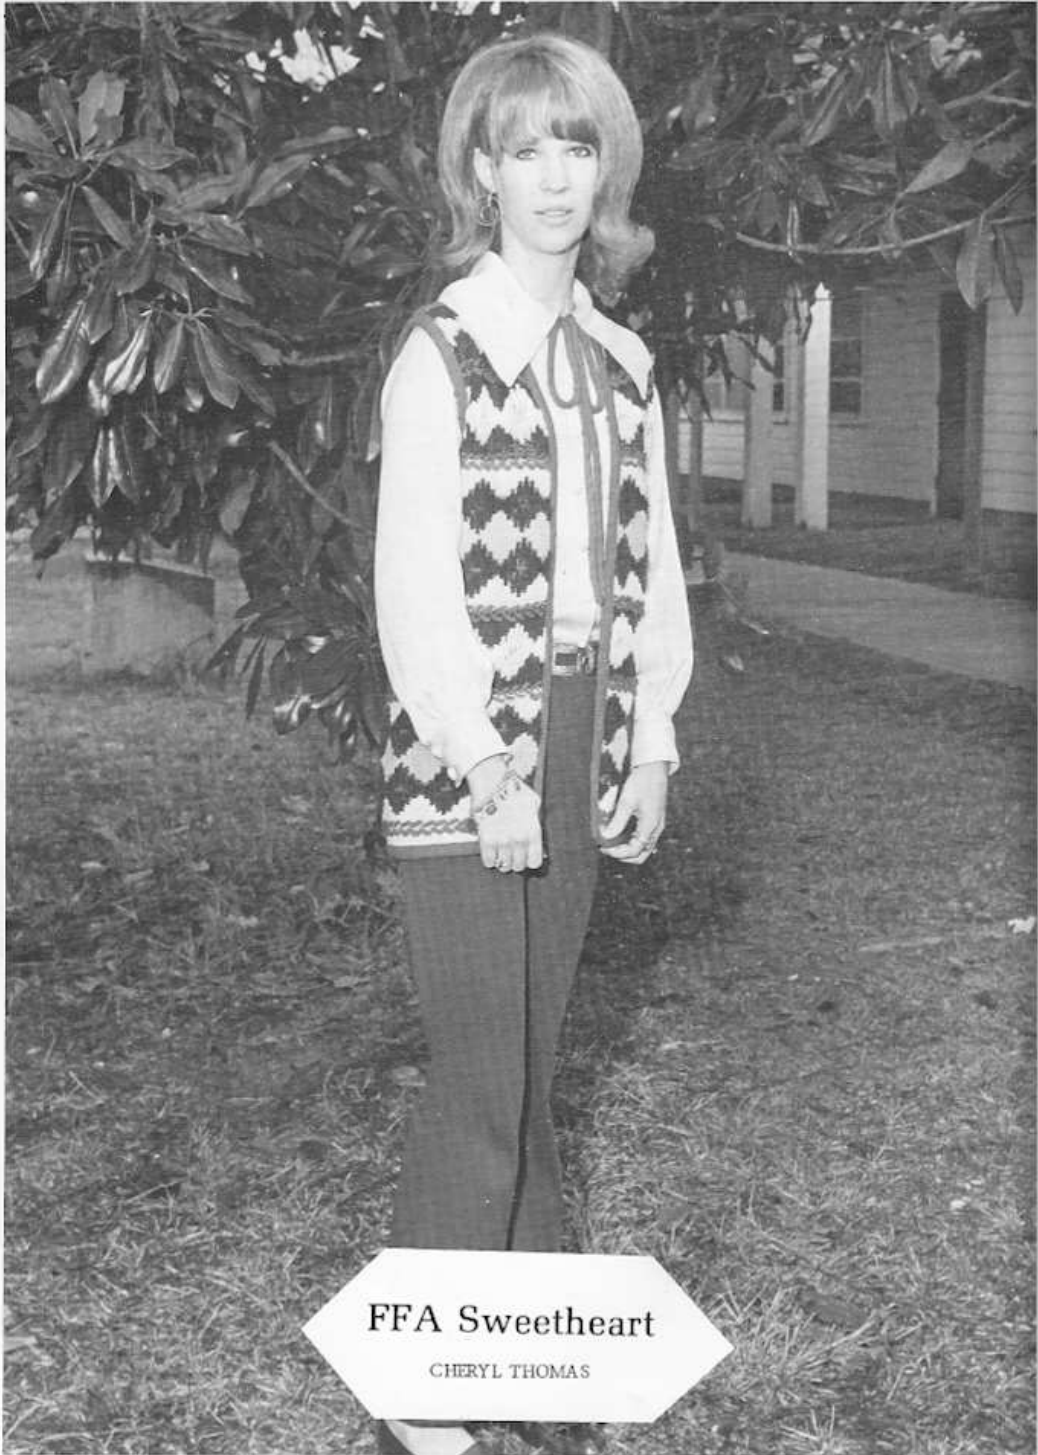

This year two girls were selected to represent Linville at the Louisiana Girls' State activities in Baton Rouge. These girls were selected because of their outstanding character, scholarship, and leadership ability. Kathy and Vicki along with over 700 other girls from throughout Louisiana spent several days learning about our government on local, parish, and state levels.

Girls' State, formally known as Pelican State, is sponsored by the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary.

Junior-Senior Banquet Of 1969

Junior class President Vicki Repond presented Mrs. Barron with a gift from the class.

The delicious meal was served by the sophomore girls.

Secretary Kathy Irwin then gave a speech about Candyland.

A candy bar was given to Mr. Hollis during his visit to Candyland.

Closing remarks were made by Vice President Lambert Dunn as the banquet came to a close.

Jackie Kennedy demonstrated life as it is found on "Big Rock Candy Mountain".

'70

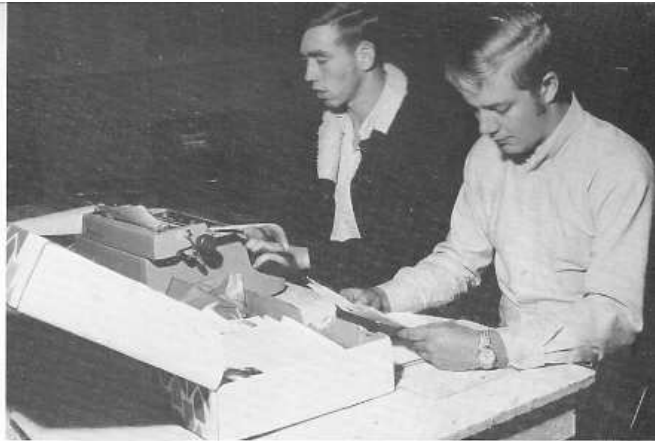

Kathy Snell and Kathy Irwin, kept an accurate record of all subscriptions sold.

The entire Stinger '70 staff worked endless hours meeting all the deadlines this year.

Eric Melder, Billy Oliver, and Robert Lankford promoted the sell of the Stinger by putting up many attractive posters.

The staff ad managers, Roger Love and Danny Reppond, worked many hours in order to get all the advertisements in the proper place.

20th Edition . . . Of Searching For Memories

Lambert Dunn, Ricky Franklin, Randy Bowen, Richard Tanner, and Eddie Gates discuss the many ways of designing their pages.

Mrs. Barron, our sponsor, looks over each page for the final check.

Searching Brings . . .

... A seventh grade class party.

... Recess and a time to play.

... Knowledge through studying hard in class.

... Presentation of the DAR Award - Mrs. Sidney H. Cooper looks on as Mrs. Reppond pins the award on her daughter, Vicki Reppond. This award is given on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

... hungry special guest to eat at L. H. S.

... A discussion with the coach.

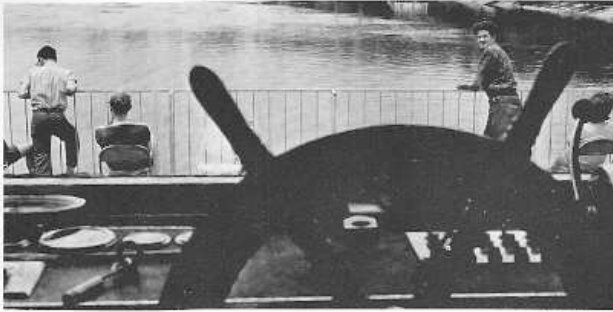

... Honor of being FHM president.

... Joy to Mrs. Gimber in receiving gifts.

... A quiet sadness when everyone leaves.

"Cruising down the river."

Vacation Time

Many students enjoyed an end of school trip down the Ouachita, on the "Twin City Queen."

Linda and Sue take lessons on how to run the boat.

Chaperons for the day were, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Reppond, Mrs. Hobgood, Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. Powell, and Mrs. Bridges.

Having fun in the sun are: Vicki, Kathy Ann, Kathy Sue, Judy, Susan, and Jackie.

In Memoriam

Brenda Tanner

As a fond mother, when the day is o're
Leads by the hand her little child to bed,
Half willing, half reluctant to be led,
And leave her broken playthings on the floor,
Still gazing at them through the open door,
Nor wholly reassured and comforted
By promises of others in their stead,
Which, though more splendid, may not please him more;

So Nature deals with us, and takes away
Our playthings, one by one, and by the hand
Leads us to rest so gently, that we go
Scarce knowing if we wish to go or stay,
Being too full of sleep to understand
How far the unknown transcends the what-we-know.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

In Memoriam

Billy Griffin

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds - and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of - wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delicious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace,
Where never lark, or even eagle, flew;
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.
