Do You Know

Do You Like The Things

Where You're Going To?

Foreword

The 1981 Stinger Staff has worked very hard in the production of the 1981 Stinger. It contains many memories of joy and tears for the hard working students and faculty at Linville.

We would like to pay special thanks to our sponsor, Mrs. Wanda Barron, for her time and much patience.

And now your book of memories. Cherish it, forever.

Coach Comments

Last year the Hornet Men won four times as many games with national celebrities and even had a little publicity of our own. We are very fortunate to be associated with the caliber of basketball that is played by small schools in the south such as Linville High School. It is said that every dog has its day and this should be the day and year of the "HORNET." Returning four starters from last year's squad, while most other schools around lost three or four, we should capitalize on their inexperience. Also we had three of our younger players and one starter exposed to top notch coaching and other athletics at the Louisiana Tech Bulldog Basketball Camp this summer. Our men not only excelled in their performance on the hardwood floor but they were the envy of each camper because of the frequency their names were called at "MAIL CALL." All of the Hornet campers were awarded a certificate where they excelled in one or more fields. We also this year were blessed with the number of people trying for a spot on the team. This is just another indication that athletics at Linville High School are on the way up.

Coach Rusty Norman

I am very much looking forward to the 1980-81 basketball season. Most everyone who played last year will be returning with the addition of some new freshman players. Practice has already started and everyone seems to be eager for the season to begin. With some fan support that will be needed I feel that this year's team should be second to none.

In Loving Memory

TED ALLEN SIMS
October 20, 1964-September 26, 1980

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
sorry down the ways.
Oh happy times and laughing times
and bright sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of Happy memories that I leave when life is done.
