THE 1982 STINGER

VOLUME XXXIII

Foreword

The 1983 Stinger Staff has worked very hard to produce the 1983 Stinger. The Staff would like to thank our sponsor Wanda Smith for her time and guidance as the yearbook was being planned.

Here is your 1983 yearbook. Enjoy the memories you find.

In Appreciation

The 1983 Stinger Staff would like to show our most sincere appreciation to Pat Johnson for help in ad sales for the last few years. Mrs. Johnson has given several days of her work schedule to help many of our staff members sell ads in the Monroe area which makes up the heart of our ad sales. This year she helped the staff members raise over $2000.00, one half of the cost of the yearbook production. With the additional funds, the Stinger Staff is able to add to the yearbook color pictures and other special effects which ordinarily could not be printed due to their expensive costs. We, the Stinger Staff, say, "Thank you, Mrs. Johnson for your help."

A PARTING GUEST

What delightful hosts are they —
Life and Love!
Lingeringly I turn away,
This late hour, yet glad enough
They have not withheld from me
Their high hospitality,
So, with face lit with delight
And all gratitude, I stay
Yet to press their hands and say,
"Thanks. — So fine a time! Good night."

Personal

-Snow Covered Forest

Snow Covered forest, all so very white,
Chilling wind blows smoothly across the ground.
Throughout cold forest what beautiful sights,
Ears from not far may catch long howling sounds.
Tall green trees, small plant seeds, to grow next spring,
A strong wind skips through them like little squirrels.
Until next year, no feathered bird will sing,
For cold blowing winds move in gusty whirls.
Animals of all kinds, none to be seen,
Hiding in tunnels under frozen earth.
Perhaps they are hiding from ice birds wings,
To protect small young ones just given birth.
Snow covered forest how lonely it can be,
Rippled white snow as far two eyes can see.

Lee Mulder

It moves in the night
With the speed of a strike
Of the snake with a kill of its prey
Its fur is as soft
As a snake held aloft
As it sleeps in the sun all day. And if you can't see
What this creature may be
Then listen to the words I say,
The wolf is its name
And killing is its game
Like the snake on a warm night in May

Lee Mulder

Gifts are what we get at Christmas time,
At Christmas time, most people are kind.
But, if I don't get a gift at all, I won't mind.

Rachale Thompson

Reflections

A bird is here today
And gone tomorrow
Flying off to new lands
To explore and mate
You may see it again
You may not.

Love may come to you many times
It may only come once
It may leave through too many lies
It may leave in anger
You may see it again
You may not.

Sophia Dixon

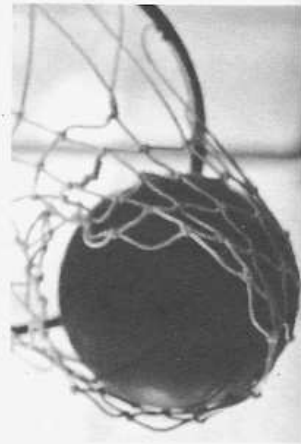

Love, bring yourself into the lonely hearts
Of men throughout the world.
Bring warmth, comfort, and happiness
Love, don't hide for so long, show how you
Feel, bring it out in the open, the news
That special person wants to hear.
Let them know that you care for them
Deep down inside.
Love, come forth, never more to roam,
But to stay forever in a place you
Can call home.

Amy Thurston

Rattle! Clank! Ping! Groan!
Hear the blue bus mutter and moan!
We know the car, we dreadfully say
Please call a wrecker to haul it away
Like pimples and acne, or some bad fungus
We can't get that darn car out from among us!

Wayne Williams
